IHOP from Vons parking lot. I like Burbank. If we had a bunch of skyscrapers, there would be no scenery.

Do you know what I miss in this good ole' shopping center? The drive up mailbox. They took it away!

Now it is a Chucky Cheese. I used to go in that old building all the time when it was a Cloth World.

Now we have come full circle on Burbank High School.

More demolition of Burbank High.

Burbank High covers this whole block.
